

NATURAL HABITAT ADVENTURES AND WORLD WILDLIFE FUND ONBOARD THE M / V OCEAN NOVA

The Antarctic Chronicle

An Expedition to the Falklands, South Georgia and Antarctica
SATURDAY THE 24TH OF JANUARY 2009

TOWARDS THE FALKLAND ISLANDS

“ To anyone who goes to the Antarctic, there is a tremendous appeal, an unparalleled combination of grandeur, beauty, vastness, loneliness, and malevolence – all of which sound terribly melodramatic but which truthfully convey the actual feeling of Antarctica. Where else in the world are all of these descriptors really true?”
Captain T.L.M. Sunter

- 0800
to 0900 Breakfast is served at leisure, please enjoy. For those that wish to settle their accounts by credit card, imprints will be taken in the dinning room during breakfast.
- 0915 We warmly invite you to join Mark for his first ornithologically themed talk simply entitled Seabirds. This will be followed by a wildlife watch hour, please join us on the outside decks to see what we can find, especially in the realm of the Albatross...
- 1230 Lunch is served in the dining room
- 1430 Please join Conrad and Brandon for our Zodiac briefing as well as a guide to Watching Wildlife According to IAATO Principles
- 1600 High tea is served
- 1630 Please join Art for his first lecture Rifting and rafting in the South Atlantic, on the origin of the Falkland Islands
- 1815 Come join us in the Panorama Lounge for a cocktail and briefing about tomorrow's planned activities in West Falklands
- 1900 Dinner is served in the dining room, please enjoy
- ±2030 Please stand by for exact timing of a nature-themed movie, Life in the Freezer with David Attenborough

GENERAL INFORMATION:

Hotel Manager's Office (Deck 3, Dining Room)

Bar (Deck 5, Panorama Lounge)

Dr. Kate Field, Clinic is on Deck 2