PLENEAU BAY AND PORT CHARCOT, AND CAPE TUXEN

*"We shall not cease from exploration, and the end of all our exploring
Will be to arrive where we started
And know the place for the first time."
-T.S. Eliot*

- 0500 Early morning Wake up call... please enjoy coffee etc
- 0530 We hope to be able to split the landing and zodiac cruising between two adjacent areas: Port Charcot and Pleneau Island. Pleneau island is well known as a 'iceberg graveyard' where whales and especially leopard seals are found. Port Charcoy is where Jean-Baptiste Charcot overwintered in his ship Francais and is a wonderfully protected bay with a superb look-out point.
- 0830 Breakfast is served
- 0900 We will be sailing through the Penola Strait, a very scenic area towards Cape Tuxen. EXPEDITION MORNING where we hope to explore the prominent cape by foot as well as by zodiac.
- 1300 Lunch is served on board
- ±1330 Please join us as we say good bye to Antarctica via the French Passage and in to the Drake Passage.
- 1500 Please join Brandon and Margaret for our Climate Change Seminar. The first half will be a lecture and the second will be a forum on global climate change issues.
- 1630 Tea is served in the Panorama Lounge with cake-of-the-day.
- 1800 We invite you to a full hour of recap about our three week experience. Please bring with questions etc

1900 Dinner is served

2030 The M/ V Ocean Nova Cinema presents: Charlie Wilson's War
